- c. In the event of a tie in any points competition the total weight over the applicable matches will act as a tie-breaker

17. Special Rules

- a. Members shall conduct themselves in a proper and sportsman-like manner.
- b. The EC shall be the sole authority for the interpretation of these rules, and the decision of the EC on any questions, or on any matter affecting these rules or the Club, not provided for in these rules, and shall be binding on all members. Any member not conforming to these rules shall be liable to suspension.
- c. All fishing rules and regulations, whether general or venue/species specific, as agreed by the E.C. and published in the annual membership permit (or any supplementary sheet) are covered by rule 17b. above.
- d. When members report individual catches from RFC waters the specific venue must not be named (terms such as private water, Berkshire Lake Private Thames stretch should be used).
- e. The venue must not be readily identifiable from images used. For avoidance of doubt, this restriction includes all forms of social media.

Rule Amendments

18. None of these rules or the Reading Fishing Club Match rules shall be altered, amended, rescinded or added to, except at an AGM, or at an EGM, and then only by the majority of members present at these meetings. All resolutions must be proposed and seconded in writing to the meeting in accordance with Rule 11 and Rule 12.

These Reading Fishing Club Rules will be binding for a period of three years from the date printed below before the above paragraph can be implemented except at the discretion of the Executive Council.

THESE GENERAL RULES SUPERSEDE ALL GENERAL RULES PRIOR TO THIS DATE 2nd.APRIL 2019.

STATEMENT

19. The Reading Fishing Club is intent that children, young people and vulnerable adults, will find angling a safe environment in which to have fun, learn and develop, and will seek to ensure this by adopting, using and promoting the JAGB Child Protection Policy Guidelines document.
